

Rev. Dr. Fr. G. Vazhan Arasu Selected Best Principal 2016 by AIACHE

It is a matter of great joy and pride that Rev. Dr. G. Vazhan Arasu, Principal St. Aloysius' Autonomous' College, Jabalpur has been selected for the prestigious Best Principal Award by All India Association for Christian Higher Education. AIACHE is a voluntary organization registered under the societies registration act (1860). AIACHE is the only ecumenical, professional association of Church – related colleges in India, numbering 350. It brings together Colleges managed by the Roman Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox Churches. These colleges are located in the various States and Union Territories of India, including possibly the largest single network of tertiary-level Christian educational institutions.

It is worth mentioning that Rev. Dr. G. Vazhan Arasu presently holds the post of the Vice President of this association which commits itself to enhance national education policies and contributions to national integration. This association articulates the spirit of voluntary enterprise in higher education and the citizens' freedom to educate the youth in institutions of their choice. The Principal envisions to provide a positive mindset for the youth in India through ethical values which are a part of the AIACHE vision and mission.

This selection filled the Aloysian fraternity comprising of Vice Principal, students, teaching and non-teaching staff with a wave of joy at their leader's remarkable achievement.
