"Application of Chemistry in Everyday Life" Department of Chemistry Report of the Online Certificate Course 2019-2020

The department of Chemistry of St. Aloysius' College organized a one week online certificate course entitled "Application of Chemistry in Everyday Life" from 17th to 25th August 2020. The course included seven modules which covered the following topics- Adulteration, Spectroscopy, Pharmaceutical Analysis, Toxicology, Water Analysis, Environmental Aspect and Personality Development. Each of the modules included conceptual aspect and the practical demonstration, which was conducted by the faculty members. The module on personality development, was conducted by Dr. Shruti Agrawal, Founder & Director of Persona- Health, Wellness & Personality Grooming Academy. The total number of participants benefited by the course was 49 which included UG & PG students, research scholars and academicians from various parts of the country. The Chairperson of the course was Dr. Anjali D'souza, Dean Faculty of Life- Science, the Convener was Dr. Smarika Lawrance, Head, Department of Chemistry and the Course coordinators were Dr. Sutapa Roy and Dr. Manju Gupta.

