INTER-CLASS QUIZ COMPETITION

Commerce Forum, under the banner of the Department of Commerce, organized an Interclass Quiz Competition on 3rd August 2024. The competition featured a battle of knowledge between classes on three major topics: Current Affairs, Financial Accounting, and Business Organization.

Students from various classes participated with great enthusiasm, making the event a resounding success. The competition provided an excellent platform for students to showcase their academic learning and apply their knowledge beyond textbooks. It also encouraged awareness of current global events, fostering a spirit of curiosity and intellectual growth.

The event was successfully conducted under the guidance of Dr. Komal Rawat and Dr. Nidhi Khurana, whose efforts ensured the smooth execution and active engagement of participants. Through this competition, students demonstrated their analytical and problem-solving skills while engaging in healthy academic rivalry. The collective efforts of students, teachers, and organizers contributed to making this quiz competition a memorable and enriching experience for all involved.

RANGSHALA

The Commerce Forum and ED Cell collaboratively organized the Rangshala event on 17th August 2024, bringing together students from various streams who participated with great enthusiasm. The event was structured into three engaging segments: Rakhi Workshop, Mehendi Competition, and Sketching Competition.

In the Rakhi Workshop, students explored different Rakhi designs and techniques, crafting three Rakhis each for their brothers. The Mehendi Competition provided a platform for students to showcase their artistic skills through intricate and creative Mehendi designs, fostering self-expression and creativity. The Sketching Competition featured remarkable artwork, where students depicted nature's essence through diverse styles and interpretations. From serene landscapes to vibrant flora and fauna, their artwork beautifully illustrated the harmonious connection between humanity and nature.

Beyond academics, Rangshala encouraged students to express their creativity and talents in a meaningful way. The event was marked by enthusiasm and dedication from both participants and coordinators, whose collective efforts ensured its resounding success. The event was successfully conducted under the guidance of Dr. Ashu Jain from ED Cell and Dr. Surbhi Jain from the Commerce Forum, whose leadership and support played a vital role in making Rangshala a memorable experience for all.

JOY OF GIVING

On October 25, 2024, the Department of Commerce at St. Aloysius' College (Autonomous) organized a heartfelt extension activity, “Joy of Giving.” Embracing the principle that “Charity begins at home,” the department prepared small gifts accompanied by sweets to celebrate the upcoming festival of Diwali. These thoughtful gestures were extended as a token of love and respect to the helping staff of the college, acknowledging their invaluable contributions.

The event was thoughtfully coordinated by a dedicated team of faculty members, including Dr. Rupali Ahluwalia, Dr. Nidhi Khurana, Dr. Sanjay Rajak, Dr. Surbhi Jain and Dr. Harbaksh Moolchandani. Their collective efforts not only fostered goodwill within the college community but also aimed to instill the spirit of generosity and gratitude among students and staff alike.

The “Joy of Giving” activity served as a heartwarming reminder of the importance of giving back and supporting one another, especially during the festive season. It reinforced the values of compassion, kindness, and appreciation, making Deepavali celebrations even more meaningful for the entire college community.

BBC 3.0

On 19th and 20th December, 2024, the Department of Commerce, in collaboration with ED Cell of St. Aloysius College and RIIM Pune B-School organized the Bharat Business Conclave 3.0 Fest. This dynamic 2-day entrepreneurship fest offered students across all streams to explore new dimensions in the field of business management and entrepreneurship. While the first day of the event consisted of engaging and fun games, food stalls and talent jam for students, the second day offered an excellent opportunity to students to attend a dynamic workshop on the concepts of building a business, titled, 'ILLUMINATE' . Experienced mentors from IIT Bombay addressed the students and offered them with valuable insights of the business world. Certificates were provided to all the participants of the workshop. This entire fest was a remarkable experience for all the students and volunteers of the fest.

CERTIFICATE DISTRIBUTION CEREMONY

RANGSHALA EVENT 2024-25

On August 17, 2024, the Commerce Department of St. Aloysius College successfully hosted the Rangshala Event. Students from various academic programs enthusiastically participated in this event, which was designed to foster creativity and help students reach their full potential. The event featured three engaging segments: Rakhi Workshop, Mehendi Competition, and Sketching Competition. The Sketching Competition, in particular, showcased an impressive variety of artistic techniques and interpretations, reflecting the depth of talent among the participants.

To honor the winners, a Certificate Distribution Ceremony was held on February 22, 2025, recognizing those who embodied the belief that "Talent is nothing without dedication and discipline, and dedication and discipline is a talent in itself." Certificates were presented by Dr. Rupali Ahluwalia (Head, Department of Commerce), Dr. Sonal Rai, Dr. Ashu Jain, Dr. Surbhi Jain, and Dr. Ekta Mukar.

This competition exemplified the commitment of students to a holistic education, emphasizing the importance of cultural traditions and artistic expression alongside academic pursuits. Looking ahead, future editions of Rangshala are expected to continue celebrating artistic diversity and cultural appreciation among Aloysius students, strengthening the creative spirit of the institution.

JOB FAIR 2025

St. Aloysius' College, Autonomous, Jabalpur, in collaboration with Bajaj Finserv, successfully organized a campus drive and job fair titled 'Bajaj Finserv Skillserv FY25 JOB FAIR' on February 15, 2025. This significant event brought together five esteemed national-level companies—Ashirvad Microfinance, Bajaj AMC, Muthoot Finance, Mahindra Home Finance, and HDB Finance—which offered a wide range of job opportunities to participating students.

Only graduate and postgraduate students who had completed Bajaj Finserv's CPBFI Course were eligible to participate in the drive, with 250 beneficiaries from various cities seizing the opportunity to position themselves with prominent professional companies. The Principal, Rev. Fr. J. Ben Anton Rose, extended encouragement and appreciation to the participants.

Mr. Raja D'cruz from the BAJAJ CSR team played a key role in the event's success, working closely with Dr. Rupali Ahluwalia. The campus drive was expertly coordinated by Dr. Rupali Ahluwalia, Head of the Department of Commerce, along with Dr. Sarita Goel, Dr. Surbhi Jain, Dr. Ekta Mukar, Dr. Priya Sahni, and Mr. Jatin Anand. The event's seamless execution was a testament to the collaborative efforts of St. Aloysius' College and Bajaj Finserv Skillserv.

The volunteers from the Commerce Forum, including Soumya Sahu, Soumya Mehendiratta, Hardik Parwani, Saina Hazari, Vanshika Tiwari, Amulya Tiwari, Yogesh Peepra, Mansoor M. Husain, Riya Francis, Vanshika Bawariya, Taniya Chawre, Lavanya Dodani, Aniket Sahu, Swayam Raikwar, Rishabh Raj Burman, Ninad Charwekar, Shreyansh Sharma, Nidhi Yadav, Bhowmik Agarwal, Smaran Khatri, Shambhavi Jain, and Adarsh Kumar Singh, played a pivotal role in organizing the event. One team focused on coordinating event logistics, ensuring the smooth setup of booths, while another managed registrations and check-ins to streamline the flow of job seekers and employers. A third team worked on marketing and promotion, spreading the word through social media and community outreach to maximize participation. On the day of the event, volunteers worked on-site, assisting attendees, guiding them to their booths, and addressing any queries. Their collective efforts not only developed their communication, teamwork, and time management skills but also provided valuable hands-on experience in event planning, further expanding their professional networks.

MICRO SEMINAR ON EMERGING TRENDS IN THE FIELD OF AI, FINTECH AND DATA SCIENCE AND SOFT SKILLS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The Department of Commerce at St. Aloysius College organized a Micro Seminar on “Emerging Trends in AI, Fintech, Data Science, and Soft Skills” on 8th March 2025. The seminar was convened by Dr. Rupali Ahluwalia, Head of the Department of Commerce, and conducted by Dr. Pooja Batra Nagpal, Associate Professor at IILM University, Gurugram, who served as the resource person for the session. The event was smoothly coordinated by Dr. Surbhi Jain from St. Aloysius College, Jabalpur, and Mr. Yuvraj Thapa from IILM University, Gurugram.

The main objective of the seminar was to help students explore the latest developments in Artificial Intelligence, Financial Technology, and Data Science, while also understanding the growing importance of soft skills in today’s career landscape. Dr. Nagpal delivered an engaging and informative session, with a special focus on ChatGPT, an advanced AI tool that can generate human-like text. She explained how ChatGPT functions, its capabilities, limitations, and the importance of giving clear prompts to get meaningful responses.

An exciting highlight of the seminar was the Shark Tank-style activity, where students pitched their own business ideas. This interactive session gave them a platform to develop and demonstrate important soft skills like communication, creativity, and problem-solving. With the enthusiastic participation of over 200 students, the seminar was a huge success. It provided an enriching learning experience and gave students a valuable glimpse into the future of technology and the skills needed to succeed in the modern business world.

The following students worked as volunteers during the seminar: Vanshika Tiwari, Amulya Tiwari, Tushar Nair, Mansoor Hussain, Smaran Khatri, Anoop Gupta, Yogesh Peepra, Shambhavi Jain, Khushi Gupta, and Adarsh Kumar Singh. As volunteers, they played a crucial role in ensuring the smooth organization and execution of the event. They were responsible for assisting with registrations, managing the interactive sessions, and providing support to both the resource person and attendees throughout the day.

Through their active participation, the volunteers learned valuable soft skills, including teamwork, communication, time management, and problem-solving. They gained hands-on experience in event coordination, learned how to manage various tasks under pressure, and developed a better understanding of the importance of effective communication in a professional setting. This experience not only enhanced their organizational skills but also gave them insight into how large-scale events are run, preparing them for future opportunities in both academics and their careers.
