

Rangoli Competition

As part of the Jubilee Celebration, the Department of Economics organised a creative Rangoli Competition on 12th September 2026 with the theme “Rangonomics: A Rangoli with an Economic Twist.” The event provided students with an innovative platform to express economic concepts through colours, patterns, symbols, and creative designs.

A total of 31 participants enthusiastically took part in the competition. The participants presented rangoli designs incorporating various economic themes and ideas, transforming conventional rangoli art into meaningful visual representations of economics. The activity successfully combined creativity, artistic expression, and economic awareness, making learning more engaging and enjoyable.

The winners for their outstanding creative presentations were:

1 ST -	SWETA BANTE	CLASS: BA I SEMESTER
2 ND -	ANJALI SHARMA	CLASS: BA V SEMESTER
3 RD --	DISHA PASI	CLASS: BA V SEMESTER
