REPORT ON THE TWO-DAY NATIONAL SEMINAR

The Department of Commerce, St. Aloysius' College (Autonomous), Jabalpur, organized a Two-Day Offline National Seminar on 23rd–24th October 2026. The seminar featured Dr. Danish Khan, Assistant Professor, St. Joseph's College of Commerce (Autonomous), Bengaluru, Karnataka, as the Resource Person. The programme was designed as a hands-on training workshop to strengthen participants' research skills through practical learning for PG and Hons students.

On Day 1, the session on "Mapping the Future of Research: Bibliometric Analysis using VOSviewer" provided practical training in bibliometric analysis, research mapping, literature review, research trends, and identification of research gaps using VOSviewer.

On Day 2, the session on "Beyond the Research Project: Building Integrity, Quality and Impact" focused on academic profiles, research integrity, quality publishing, journal selection, research visibility, and strategies for improving citation impact. The interactive sessions equipped participants with practical tools to enhance the quality and impact of their research.

The seminar witnessed the enthusiastic participation of more than 100 faculty members, research scholars, and students, making it a highly engaging and enriching learning experience.

The seminar was successfully conducted under the guidance and support of Rev. Dr. Fr. J. Ben Anton Rose, Principal, Dr. Rupali Ahluwalia, Head, Department of Commerce, and Dr. Sonal Rai, In-charge of the Second Shift. The programme was organized and coordinated by Dr. Komal Rawat. The interactive session provided participants with practical exposure to advanced research practices and motivated them to pursue high-quality, ethical, and impactful research.
