Annual Report AY 2021-22

Quality is never an accident. It is always the result of intelligent effort.

John Ruskin

St. Aloysius' (Autonomous) College, Jabalpur is committed to continuing its tradition of excellence by implementing quality initiatives in all aspects of the educational experience, including but not limited to the curriculum, the pedagogy, the learning environment, and the assessment of student performance. Though it was challenging to accept at first, the "new normal" turned out to be the best tool for adjusting to our new circumstances. For the academic year of 2021–2022, the College utilised technology and maintained its arduous pursuit of excellence. It has been in the vanguard of shaping the minds of the nation's youth, helping them develop strong personalities and giving them the confidence they'll need to take on any obstacle in their future.

Teaching & learning: The session started off in an online mode, but soon the classroom teaching-learning resumed in blended mode. The online teaching was conducted on Google meet platforms that expedited efficient teaching-learning throughout the session. A great enthusiasm was witnessed in both the teachers and the taught.
