THE LIBRARY COLLECTION

With a wealth of printed and electronic knowledge resources and state-of-the-art facilities, the St. Aloysius College Library is among the most advanced academic libraries. Book Bank's approximately 14,000 textbooks, which are classified under the Dewey Decimal Scheme and consist of over 84,000 printed volumes, are well-organized on open shelves and wall mounts. In addition to its extensive collection of electronic journals, the library also maintains subscriptions to 17 newspapers in various languages, 70 printed periodicals (journals & magazines), and ancient volumes of periodicals. The library maintains an E-Resource Centre that grants patrons access to an extensive collection of electronic books, blogs, and databases.
