DEPARTMENT OF BIOTECHNOLOGY

Session 2021-22

Event: Science Day celebration

Date: 28th February 2022

Number of the students: 75

National Science Day is celebrated every year on 28th February to mark the discovery of the Raman effect in 1928 by Indian physicist Dr. CV Raman. CV Raman discovered it while working in the laboratory of the Indian Association for the Cultivation of Science, Kolkata, which helped him in winning the prestigious Nobel Prize in 1930.

Department of Biotechnology organized an awareness program on National Science Day on 28 February 2022. In this regard, Department organized various events like making of science-based Reels and Memes, Spell- bee, Skit on the discovery of Penicillin. Students showcased their talent and touched many aspects related to medicinal discovery. More than 75 students participated in the event.

Dr. Sutapa Roy, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, Dr. Akhilesh Pathak and Mr Satyendra Jain, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics, were the Judges for the various competitions. Certificates and Awards were distributed to the winning students.

Importance of National Integration in Today's world

'National Integration' refers to the term like 'National Identity', 'Unity', and 'Oneness'. Just as the example of my own country 'India' where the 'fellowship of different religions, languages and arts and culture are woven in one garb of 'Unity'. The flashback of India tells the importance of National Integration in about seventy-four years ago on 15/08/1947 India got Independence from the British Raj.

India was one of the wealthiest country in the world before British rule. But the British who captured India knows that the disunity and lack of unity among the various royal states about "two centuries" of slavery of India which drained out India's wealth as well as the division of India and Pakistan, the new nation we now need to make "United Bharat". Only if India was aware of the term 'Integration', 'Unity', it would be still called "the united India". The British drained away everything from our hands including our

India is a sovereign, socialist, secular, democratic and republic country which makes this diverse country integrated nationally and it is possible because of efforts of our leaders, great and leaders in which one of the most prominent name is Swami Vivekananda. After the Indian war of India and as minister for Home & State Affairs had the responsibility of making British Indian provinces and princely states into a united India. In present scenario, the cause of Bangladeshi is more than in the past. However, there are some challenges and threats also.

National Integration is the awareness of a common identity among the citizens of the country. This means that although we belong to different castes, religions, speak different language, eat different kinds of food, wear different clothes but we recognise the fact that we all are one like a 27-year old girl from North East India (Assam), Sakom Chura for Chura, as India would after, was the silver medal at 2020 Tokyo Olympic on which not only every Indian, could be seen but also inspired the nation.

Importance of National Integration in Today's world

National Integration refers to the bond people (with a country) share, irrespective of being different in race, gender etc. It's history revolves around the two states. Jawahar Lal Nehru first addressed the issue in 1947. The reason behind to do so was to get over to the rule of the British, which was the-
 He of them the things have already changed in a great extent and will also continue to change. I am happy that coming together for the purpose of it to something as a 'positive impact', to it do integration. However, I would like to say that it's important because, with National Integration, we can have a -
 - Economic growth within the nation.
 In a united nation, the country that respecting and respecting people, only when self-respect and unity, as well as the love for each other. There will a lot of the disappointed among them which will let you contribute more on work. It's in the economic growth.

Integration Importance
 The sense of togetherness will make it way out of every problem being met.
