Dear Dr. Reeta Chouhan
(Department of Economics)

Date - March 2, 2022

This is to inform about the availability of financial assistance under which an amount of 124958/- has been dispersed for attending Seminars, Workshops, Training and faculty development programs during this financial year as part of our commitment to supporting the professional growth and advancement of our faculty members, we have allocated funds to assist with the expenses associated with participating in programs of our college and other programs attended in other institutions.

We believe that investing in our teachers' growth and development not only benefits them individually but also contributes to the overall improvement of our educational institution. By providing financial assistance for faculty development programs, we aim to empower our teachers to excel in their roles and inspire our students to achieve academic excellence.
