Online Program on Code of Conduct for newly appointed teachers

Date: 13th September 2020

Report: The Online Program on the Code of Conduct for Newly Appointed Teachers was conducted by IQAC, SAC to acquaint new educators with the professional and ethical standards expected within the SAC community. This program emphasizes the importance of integrity, professionalism, respect, and responsibility, guiding teachers in maintaining positive interactions with students, colleagues, and administration. Through comprehensive sessions, practical examples, and real-world case studies, newly appointed teachers learned to create a supportive and respectful classroom environment, uphold digital conduct, and engage in continuous professional development and uphold the values of the teaching profession. Dr. K. Das, Vice Principal Administration and Dr. Anjali D'Souza, Vice Principal, Academics and Dr. Mita Darbari, Dean, Physical Sciences took the sessions. It was very fruitful for all the participants.
