Awareness Programme on Ban of Plastic in Campus and beyond

Nukkad Natak with the theme "Don't be elastic, Say no to Plastic"

On September 14 2019, the Samarpan Club at our college hosted a street play titled "Don't be elastic, Say no to Plastic." The performance involved 15 students who effectively communicated the dangers of plastic pollution and encouraged the reduction of plastic use. The engaging play aimed to educate the audience on environmental conservation and urge them to adopt eco-friendly habits. This creative approach proved to be a compelling method to raise awareness and foster positive change within the community.

Awareness campaign on “Say No to Plastic, Save the World”

On January 15, 2020, the Nature Club conducted an awareness campaign titled "Say No to Plastic, Save the World" in the Choupati area. Students engaged with local shop owners, educating them on the environmental and health hazards associated with plastic products like bottles, cups, and bags. They also distributed eco-friendly paper bags and cups to encourage alternatives and urged shop owners to commit to reducing plastic usage. The campaign received positive feedback, with many shopkeepers expressing willingness to support the initiative.
