Oath ceremony and Speech competition on Kargil Vijay Diwas

Date: 26th July 2022

In commemoration of Kargil Vijay Diwas, St. Aloysius College (Autonomous) NCC cadets organized a series of events aimed to honor the sacrifices of our brave soldiers and promote national unity. Activities included a cleanliness drive, poster-making competition, speech competition, and an oath-taking ceremony on Nasha Mukti. Around 50 NCC cadets actively participated in these activities, demonstrating their commitment to social responsibility and patriotism. In addition, cadets delivered speeches inspired by the stories of Kargil heroes, paying tribute to the valor and bravery of our armed forces. The event served as a responsible reminder of the sacrifices made by our soldiers and reinforced the importance of national unity and integrity.

Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava

On 15th August 2022, the college celebrated Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav to honor 75 years of India's independence. The day began with the hoisting of the National Flag by Principal Rev. Dr. Vazan G. Arasu, followed by a series of engaging activities and competitions. Students enthusiastically participated in events like debates, extempore speeches, rangoli making, collage making, essay writing, creative writing, and skits. A speech on Independence Day was delivered by Ms. Adhya Nayak, highlighting the significance of the occasion. By addressing the students, principal emphasized the importance of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav as a symbol of India's enduring spirit of freedom and innovation. A prize distribution ceremony, overseen by program coordinator Dr. Mita Darbari, recognized the achievements of participants. The IQAC Newsletter was also released during the event, and Mr. Satyendra Jain extended the vote of thanks. The celebration concluded with the rendition of the National Song, 'Vande Matram'.
